I created this form because as a babysitter, I've gained a great deal of knowledge as to what parents look for when searching for someone to look after their children. A simple form, like the one I've created, covers all the basics and provides parents with the information needed to at least get a good idea if the applicant would be a good babysitter for their children. Any other information needed by the parents from the applicant can only be found out when the babysitter and the children interact.
